No 1297.

Vienna, Auguſt 1. O. S.

THE Turks, who have carry'd a Parallel Line before Belgrade, batter it with 48 Cannon and Mortars; but as 'tis obſerv'd that they don't play upon the Works, but level directly at the Town, it looks as if their Deſign was firſt to ruin all the Houſes. The continual m the Cannon of Belgrade has already diſ- s of the Enemy's Batteries.

Days ago an Expreſs arriv'd from the French dor at the Porte, who brought a Letters for ident of the Council of War, which we are late to a Peace between the Emperor and the and that the French Ambaſſador has ſent a of Preliminaries; which, 'tis ſaid, has been in Council, and not at all reliſh'd.

further Enquiry it appears now, That the f Heſſe-Rhinfels was not kill'd in the Battle a, but only taken Priſoner by the Turks, and o Semendria.

ears by the laſt Accounts from Hungary, that nt de Bonneval is conſtantly with the Grand and that a great Council of War has been the Enemy's Camp, in which that Count was and gave his Opinion concerning the Siege of e and the other Operations of the Campaign.

aſſar, who was taken Priſoner laſt Campaign Turks, and has now made his Eſcape to the Camp, ſays, that the Turks loſt above 8000 the Battle of Crotzca, and that 8 Baſhaws ll'd there, as well as ſeveral other Officers of ion in the Ottoman Army. According to which the French Ambaſſador has receiv'd ing the ſubſequent Action at Panczova, the the Turks that was then engaged did not to above 18 or 20000 Men.

ſort, Aug 8. O S. Particular Letters from confirm, that the Turks are marching to- he Imperialiſts, who expected them in their Jabouka; ſo that no doubt we ſhall ſoon News of a third Action.

e's certain News from Manheim, that the Palatine is now in very good Health there, thank'd his Phyſician and Confeſſor in Pre- the whole Court, for the Care they have ta- h of his Body and Soul.

ſwer, Aug. 7. O. S. The Copy of a Letter from urt of Waldeck, dated the 1ſt Inſtant, is pub- here, which ſays as follows, 'The Battle of a has caſt our Court into the utmoſt Conſter- . The Death of one of our Princes, and the nd receiv'd by another, have ſo much caſt down rinceſs their Siſter, that ſhe fainted away when eard the bad News, and much ado they had to er her; ſince that ſhe is fallen ſick. The of Troops that was raiſed in that Principality, hich march'd to Hungary, ſuffer'd very much e Action at Crocza: And it muſt be acknow- d, in Juſtice to the ſaid Body, that it was one oſe Corps which ſuſtained the hotteſt Fire of nemy.

, Aug. 17. The French Conſul at Smyrna has particular Account of the Rebel Sare Bey Og- efeat, with the following Tranſlation of a Let- ten upon that Head to the Conſuls of the Fo- Nations by the Grand Signior's Equerry.

our meſt eſteemed and moſt ſincere Friends, Procurators and Conſuls: After our hearty ing, as in Duty bound, we ſincerely acquaint by this Letter, that on the 19th of the Month in this Year, (which anſwers to our 27th of) the Infidel Chief the wicked and curſed Sare Oglou, who in all things behaved very wick- both to the Muſſelmen and their Towns, was od's Aſſiſtance, and by the Proſperity of our ous Maſter the Grand Signior, totally deſtroy'd his curſed Company and his Accomplices, in h Number Cara Oglou was kill'd, and the cur- ecber Oglou taken alive, then chain'd and car- Priſoner to the Caſtle of Guiſſeliſar, in order to be puniſh'd, as well as all the reſt, for ples to all the World. As therefore the unfor e Sare Bey Oglou was beheaded, 'tis poſitively given out here, that his curſed Head is carry'd to our glorious and excellent Vizier Baſha, and that all the World is thereby delivered from the ill Deſigns of this Rebel, for which the Lord be praiſed. This good News will be Matter of Joy to every one, particularly to you who are Friends of the ſublime and happy Porte, and who ought to rejoice at it, and to ſet your Hearts at Reſt. Knowing moreover, that you deſired to be delivered from the Uneaſineſs which that Villain gave you, I could not fail giving you the Satisfaction of this preſent Letter, which, if it pleaſe God, may be productive of the good News to me that you have not baniſh'd me from your Remembrance.

Madrid, July 24. O.S. The Engliſh Conſuls and Merchants at Alicant, Cadiz, and other Ports of Spain, are haſtening to put their Effects on board the Engliſh Shipping there, in order that they may be ready to get away as ſoon as the firſt Blow is ſtruck. The Court has ſuſpended the Departure of the Flotilla that was fitting out for the Weſt Indies, yet as none of thoſe Ships that had taken in their Cargoes have been unladen, 'tis conjectur'd that ſome will certainly ſail to America, even in caſe of a Rupture; and what corroborates it is, the Departure of the new Viceroy of Mexico for Cadiz, in order to imbark there. Quarters are preparing at Alicant for a great Body of Militia.

We hear from Gibraltar, that upon a Report that 15000 Spaniards were marching towards that Place, the Inhabitants were taking Care to ſecure their Effects, and making as great Preparations for their Defence, as if they expected a Siege every Day.

According to our Advices from Africa, Muley Hamet Ben Lariba, who is Muley Abdalla's chief Rival, was marching to beſiege Tangier, becauſe the Baſha has refuſed to own him as King of Morocco. 'Tis ſaid, that the Engliſh Ships will be refuſed Entrance into the Port of Lisbon with any Prizes that they ſhall take from the Spaniards.

Vienna, Aug. 15. N. S. By Letters from the Ruſſian Army of the 23d paſt O. S. it is adviſed, that Marſhal Munich had paſs'd the Dnieſter with a very conſiderable Body that very Day, at or near a Place called Sinchova; where that River being nearer its Source, is more ſhallow than at Choczin: That the reſt of the Army with the heavy Baggage under General Romanzoff was expected to paſs alſo the ſame Evening: That Marſhal Munich had immediately after his Paſſage ſent out a Party to forage, which had been attack'd by a Body of Tartars, and that the latter had been repuls'd, after skirmiſhing two Hours. The Ruſſian Army conſiſts of 60000 Men, whereof 47000 are regular Troops, the reſt Coſſacks. In their Train of Artillery they have 62 Cannon, 11 Mortars, 16 Haubitzers, 156 Field-pieces, and 392 ſmall Mortars called Cohornes; and 3000 Men are employed apart to attend and ſerve this Artillery. By a Letter of the 5th Inſtant from Belgrade we are inform'd, that the Earl of Crawford, who had ſignaliz'd himſelf in the Action at Crocza, and being wounded was brought for Cure to Belgrade, was ſo well recovered as to be judged out of Danger.

Berlin, Aug. 15. N. S. Yeſterday arrived here Prince Tzerbatow, the Czarina's Miniſter Plenipotentiary to the Court of Great Britain, and he deſigns to proceed To-morrow Morning on his Journey to England.
